Workshop Outline & Costs

All of our workshops are based on a group consisting of up to 30 children and 6 adults. Due to the space restrictions of our classroom in the Learning Coach, classes will be split into 2 groups of 15 for the day.

Here is an example of a workshop itinerary

Most of our workshops follow the same itinerary. Here is an example of a typical school visit to Ingrow Education Centre where the school have booked onto one of our workshops and have added a train ride onto their day.

- 10:00 School Arrives at Ingrow Education Centre.
- 10:10 - 10:30 Welcome and introduction. Class is divided into two groups of 15. Coats, bags and lunches are placed into the secure cupboard.
- 10:30 - 11:45 Group 1 - Stay in Learning Coach and partake in paid workshop.
Group 2 - Catch 10:30 train to Oxenhope and return at 11:30.
- 11:45 - 12:00 Explore Museum of Rail Travel. Prepare for lunch. Time available for Group 1 to purchase items from the shop if required.
- 12:00 - 12:25 Lunch on one of the carriages in the Museum of Rail Travel or outside if the weather is nice.
- 12:25 - 14:00 Group 1 - Catch 12:30 train to Oxenhope and return at 14:00.
Group 2 - Partake in paid workshop in the Learning Coach. Time available for Group 2 to purchase items from the shop if required.
- 14:00 Collect belongings from the Learning Coach and return to coach/minibus to go back to school.
