Summer weekend vintage bus service.

Our normal steam and diesel train service is supplemented at weekends by a vintage bus service, shown here. In fine weather an open-top vehicle will be used. From Haworth station the bus heads up the steep hill towards the top of Main Street and the Bronte Parsonage. After stopping in a handy location for shops and attractions (at the bus stop adjacent to the car park at the junction of Changegate and North Street), the bus continues via Bronte countryside towards Oxenhope, providing stunning views on the way. The bus then takes a direct route back to Haworth with views across the valley towards Haworth.

This bus is FREE with any of our Rover tickets. A small charge is payable by other ticket holders. ENCTS bus passes are not accepted.
